

ReNew

January/February 2009

Tunneling under Vancouver, the Canada Line is number 6 on our Top 10.

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

The TOP 10

This Year's Biggest Infrastructure Projects

+ Top 100 List Includes:

Going for the Gold: B.C. sprints—and spends—towards the Olympic finish line

Toronto's waterfront finally blossoms—and gets 3 projects onto the Top 100

Power Play: hydroelectric matches up to nuclear

AFPs get Ontario hospitals built

PM #40854046

ReThink. ReBuild. ReNew.
renewcanada.net

Mega Hospital for Montreal—More P3 Controversy

Silver Lining: The Upside of Low Commodity Prices

How PPP Canada Inc. Plans to Boost the Industry

$9.00

ReNew

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2009

FEATURES

- 12 The Top 10 Billions of dollars, hundreds of companies—this year’s biggest Canadian infrastructure projects. By Mira Shenker
- 24 The Fate of the Mega-Project Keeping cash flowing long enough to complete a long-term construction project. By Sam Sidawi and John Haasen
- 28 Montreal’s New Super Hospitals The funding, the fighting and the culmination of years of planning and promises. By Jason Magder

SPECIAL INSERT

TOP 100 As a special supplement to this issue, our list of the Top 100 Canadian Infrastructure Projects is inserted at the centre.

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor’s Note Another scary note about the economy. By Mira Shenker
- 5 Letters Carol Wilding on the Board of Trade’s strategy for stimulus.
- 8 Opening Shots Two LEED projects break ground, new building standards for Nova Scotia, global market trends and more.
- 10 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 31 ReFinance PPP Canada Inc. announces its plans to ease into the industry. By Mira Shenker
- 33 StormWatch Canada embraces Tax Increment Financing. By Storm Cunningham
- 36 ReBuild Precast concrete plants get a visit from their friendly neighbourhood auditor.
- 38 The LEED List Four new certifications in Canada.
- 39 Community Profile Quebec City celebrates 400 years.
- 40 ReEvents CERIU and CCPPP’s annual conferences, the Global Infrastructure Leadership Forum and more.
- 42 Closing Shot Why Todd Latham is glad to be in the infrastructure business right now.

12

24

28

42

31

ABOUT THE COVER(S)

Credit: Canada Line Rapid Transit Inc.

The 19-kilometre Canada Line has been a staple of our Top 10 list since its inception—it’s a true mega-project. After years of planning, it should be in service November 2009. This image comes from a section of the bored tunnel underneath downtown Vancouver.