

ReNew

May/June 2010

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

+ Pipes and Pavement:
Tension Over
ROW and Material Choices

+ Games Over:
Post-Olympics,
Vancouver's Plan to Become the World's Greenest City

TECH CITIES

Urban spaces as slick, connected, efficient systems.

ReThink. ReBuild. ReNew.
renewcanada.net

Legal Ease:
How to Avoid Costly Missteps
in Project Finance

Clear Cutting:
Demo in the Name of Renewal

How Quebec
Became a Brownfield
Policy Leader

$9.00

10

14

18

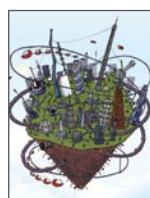

25

41

ABOUT THE COVER

Cities will become teched-out, streamlined and as efficient as natural ecosystems. But only if we have the vision to imagine the future possible.

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

MAY/JUNE 2010

FUTURE CITIES

- 10 A Tale of Three Cities Finding the path to urban renewal in three different cities. By Mira Shenker
- 14 Games Over Vancouver's Olympics left the city with some impressive showcase developments, but where does it go from here? By Alex Aylett
- 18 Fresh Ideas for Raw Sewage The False Creek Energy Centre By Ray Tarnai, Ausenco Sandwell
- 19 It Takes a Village Ontario municipalities are hoping to do as well the Pan Am Games as Vancouver did with the Olympics. By Hilary Vaillancourt
- 20 Tech Support Smart technologies and interconnected systems will make up the cities of the future. By Pat Horgan and Glenn Miller
- 23 Reimagining Geospatial Technology A few ways cities are turning to IT for efficiency. By David Monaghan

REGIONAL FOCUS: QUEBEC

- 26 Policed State How Quebec became a leader in remediation without even having a word for "brownfield" in French. By Mira Shenker

SUBSURFACE

- 28 Cheap, Shallow and Fast The struggle to keep ROW work efficient. By Lia Grainger
- 31 Material Goods The great pipe debate: concrete v. steel. By Kerry Freek

TRANSPORTATION

- 32 The LRT Attitude Canadian cities need a little Texan confidence when it comes to getting projects built.
- 34 Trade-Offs Gateway and trade infrastructure is critical to our economy, yet always requires compromise in the planning stages. By André Juneau

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note Our three levels of government need to learn how to play well together. By Mira Shenker
- 5 Letters Blog reactions, project delivery queries and an OPWA disappointment.
- 7 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 8 ReThink Mira Shenker asks Ontario's Minister of Energy and Infrastructure Brad Duguid how it feels to be a super-minister.
- 25 Community Profile Trois Rivières, Quebec shifts from its industrial history. By Kerry Freek
- 36 The LEED List Eight new LEED certifications in Canada.
- 37 Re: The Law How to get a project started the right way—you may need a lawyer. By Doug Sanders and Geoff Steiner
- 40 ReEvents Special GLOBE 2010 roundup, plus FCM Sustainable Communities, Urban Transportation Summit and more.
- 42 Closing Shot Todd Latham would vote for a female president.