

ReNew

July/August 2010

+ Industry Reactions
to the Rollout of PPP Canada's
$1.2-Billion Fund

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

RADIOACTIVE REDUX

The Business of Fuelling the Future

ReThink. ReBuild. ReNew.
renewcanada.net

The Sewer Sector
Sets Higher Standards—
Will Others Follow?

Utilities Trying
On The
Telecom Hat

Towing The Green Line:
How Real Is CSR?

$9.00

ReNew

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Renewal Magazine

JULY/AUGUST 2010

FEATURES

- 8 CANDU Attitude Atomic Energy of Canada Limited's restructuring may be a sign that Canada's nuclear technology is no longer lucrative for its federal government. By Diane L.M. Cook
- 22 Broadband Over Power Is there a more efficient way to wire our communities?
- 23 Spending the P3 Fund Industry reactions to the rollout of PPP Canada's fund.
- 37 Sewer Guide Before these assets can be managed, they need to be properly assessed. By Greg Chartier

ENERGY

- 12 Solar City 3D mapping makes NYC solar-ready. By Laurie Reilly
- 14 Low-Tech Solutions Biochar may offer a safer way to sequester carbon. By Kerry Freek
- 16 New Generation What new energy programs in Ontario and British Columbia mean to the industry. By Kris Wallace

REGIONAL FOCUS: ATLANTIC CANADA

- 20 Smart Province New Brunswick goes completely broadband. By Kerry Freek

PUBLIC-PRIVATE INNOVATION

- 28 Company Line Is corporate social responsibility all talk, or is the private sector really pushing for change? By Mira Shenker
- 32 The New Transportation Infrastructure How big business is working with think tanks to drive new mobility. By Susan Zielinski

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note Planning for a healthy mix of renewable energy sources. By Mira Shenker
- 5 Letters Energy issues faced by Canada and the world.
- 6 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 27 Community Profile Lockeport, Nova Scotia works to implement its Integrated Community Sustainability Plan.
- 36 The LEED List Six new LEED certifications in Canada.
- 39 ReEvents CNAM, RPIC Federal Contaminated Sites, FCM Annual Conference, and more.
- 42 Closing Shot Todd Latham wonders why few people know what PSAB is.

8

20

28

36

42

ABOUT THE COVER

From behind a lead-shielded glass window, a student removes a radioactive specimen from a cage, using the remote manipulator devices which mimic his movements inside the hot cell at the McMaster Nuclear Reactor.