

ReNew

July/August 2012

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Magazine

- + Defining Public Transit
- + Renewal Renegades: What Kind of City Do You Want?

THE RESOURCE RIPPLE

10

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Magazine

JULY/AUGUST 2012

- 10 The Resource Ripple How new mining operations are making waves across the entire infrastructure industry. By Mira Shenker
- 20 Food for Thought Urban agriculture is about more than just growing veggies downtown. It's about what kind of city the public is asking its municipal leaders to create. By Alex Aylett
- 28 Clawback Will environmentally friendly construction equipment eat into project profits? By Saul Chernos
- 32 The New Nuclear Small modular reactors may mean nuclear can compete with other on-site, compact forms of energy generation. By Douglas McCallum

TRANSPORTATION

- 24 Transit-Free Zone What are small, rural communities supposed to do with funding for public transit when they don't have the densities to support it? By Susanne Ruder
- 25 Rolling Stock or Bike Paths FCM poll reveals that municipalities struggle with the definition of public transit. By Mira Shenker

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note Are social networking sites helping or hurting employee productivity? By Mira Shenker
- 16 ReFinance Crowd-powered, citizen-led renewal brings new meaning to the term "public consultation." By Storm Cunningham
- 22 Panorama Thunder Bay's revitalized waterfront.
- 30 Re: The Law Is excess construction soil a risk or a resource? By Saul Chernos
- 34 Canadians at Work James Sbrolla travels to India to discover opportunities in the country's growing water, transportation, and municipal infrastructure sectors.
- 38 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry—plus a few acquisitions.
- 39 ReEvents RPIC Contaminated Sites National Workshop, FCM's Annual Conference and Tradeshow, and more.
- 42 Closing Shot Occupy Infrastructure: Todd Latham calls on municipal leaders to protest.

FRONT

- 5 Letter José Etcheverry wants Alberta to fight for renewables.
- 7 Polls and the ReImagine gallery.
- 8 Web feedback and videos.

34

20

32

16