

ReNew

July/August 2013

C A N A D A

The Infrastructure Magazine

+ Connect to Canada's First
'Smart City'

page 24

+ Funding the Transit
Beast

page 32

HIGH ON ENERGY

Store It. Manage It. Invest in It.

ReNew

CANADA

The Infrastructure Magazine

JULY/AUGUST 2013

10

24

14

34

30

ENERGY

- 10 Store It Saul Chernos examines emerging energy storage technologies ready to help give the grid a boost.
- 14 Invest in It Canada is on the brink of becoming an energy superproducer, but only if the right policies are in place.
By Gerry Angevine and Kenneth Green
- 18 Visualize It Building energy efficiency is driven by increased expectations of sustainability.
By Edwin Lim and Ian Theaker
- 20 Manage It Buildings of today must become smarter and greener to perform better.
By John Longbottom

PUBLIC WORKS

- 24 Street Smarts Treena Hein details how Cambridge pioneers intelligent asset management practices—and attracts international attention.
- 28 Designs of Healing André Voshart describes how B.C.'s new St. Mary's Hospital balances innovative technology with a connection to nature.

TRANSIT & TRANSPORTATION

- 32 The Transit Beast The debate on how to fund the GTHA's transit plan ramps up.
By André Voshart
- 34 Beyond the Status Quo Iqaluit's plan to be a model of the North.
By André Voshart

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editor's Note Smart asset management a must in the emerging business of city building. By André Voshart
- 5 Front Integrated mobility, apprenticeship success, and Canada's LEED milestone.
- 16 Re: The Law The PR battle between anti-wind groups and turbine proponents is in full swing.
By Clark Kingsbury
- 22 Panorama An art installation uses reflectivity to draw people through the space.
- 30 ReFinance Private debt financing provides stable returns over the long term.
By Louis Bélanger
- 36 ReLocate Jobs gained and lost in the industry.
- 37 ReEvents CNAM Conference, Ontario Consulting Engineering Awards, FCM Conference and Tradeshow
- 42 Closing Shot Todd Latham is part of the fourth level of government.